

Ambassade de France en Géorgie

Request for information from the French Embassy in Tbilisi

Care availability in Georgia

(to be completed by the SEM)

Reference no.: n/a

Subject: Male, 58 y.o., Georgian

Diagnosis:

- ischemic heart disease requiring double coronary artery bypass surgery

Treatment received:

- hospitalized from 17 April to 03 May 2017 due to complicated acute coronary syndrome from cardiogenic shock and hospitalized from 21 June to 25 June 2017 due to chest pain. On a combination of 12 drugs

Prescribed medication:

- Metformine chlorhydrate 500mg (Metformine actavis),
- Aspegic 100mg protect,
- Bisoprolol Hemifumarate 2,5mg (Bisoce),
- Furosemide 40mg (Furosemide Biogaran),
- Perindopril tert-butylamine 4mg(perindopril arrow),
- Pantoprazole (NA salt) 20mg (Eupantol),
- Alprazolam 0,25mg (alprazolam alter)
- Molsidomine 2mg (Corsaval),
- Clopidogrel (Sulfat) 75mg (Plavix),
- Liptrozet 10/80,
- Imovane 7,5mg
- Quetiarine 400

Place and date: Dijon 18th January 2019. Signature of head of section: n/a

We kindly request your assistance concerning the following questions:

(to be completed by the Embassy)

1. Is the above-mentioned medical treatment available in Georgia?

Name and location of facility (facilities):

2. Is the above-mentioned medication available in Georgia?
3. Are any alternatives to the above-mentioned medication available in Georgia?
4. If the medication is not available in Georgia, is it possible to import it from abroad? If so, who pays the costs for this medication?
5. Who provides the above-mentioned medical care in Georgia?

Place and date: Tbilissi 28th January 2020 Signature:

French Embassy in Tbilisi

2. Is the above-mentioned medication available in Georgia?
3. Are any alternatives to the above-mentioned medication available in Georgia?
4. If the medication is not available in Georgia, is it possible to import it from abroad? If so, who pays the costs for this medication?
5. Who provides the above-mentioned medical care in Georgia?

Place and date: Tbilissi 28th January 2020 Signature:

French Embassy in Tbilisi

Alexandre POPOVIC
Adjoint du chef de section consulaire