Ms. Natia Loladze
President of Georgia Red Cross Society

Dear Ms. Loladze,

It was my pleasure meeting you and Head of Delegation of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies in South Caucasus Ms. Olga Dzhumaeva during your recent visit to the Ministry.

We deeply appreciate preparedness and commitment of Georgia Red Cross Society to support the government in carrying out necessary activities for the prevention and control of novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak.

It should be noted that ongoing activities of the Red Cross Society, including dissemination of recommendations for the prevention of COVID-19 and psychological assistance of the population through hotline is of vital importance.

The Government of Georgia takes all necessary measures to reduce the spread of infectious disease. Under to the current regulations, quarantine or self-isolation is applicable to the travelers arriving from the high-risk countries. Those travelers who hold appropriate premises for secured self-quarantine the rule of self-isolation will apply to them. Therefore, we would like to kindly ask you to engage the volunteers of the Red Cross Society in assessment of the premises for self-isolation and other activities, in coordination with governmental institutions, for efficient responding challenges related to COVID-19.

In addition, we would like to share with you the list of required medical supply and equipment, which is essential to handle the expanding need for medical goods during this hard epidemiological situation.

We reiterate the significant of your continued support and believe that novel coronavirus outbreak will eventually be defeated by consolidated efforts.

Thank you once again for fruitful collaboration and support.

Sincerely yours,

First Deputy Minister
