

CONTINGENCY FUND FOR EMERGENCIES DONOR AGREEMENT

Between

THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION (WHO)

And

GEORGIA

(herein after referred to as the "Donor")

I. Background

- A. This Agreement relates to a financial contribution to be made by Georgia to WHO towards the Contingency Fund for Emergencies (CFE), established pursuant to decision WHA68(10) 2014 Ebola virus disease outbreak and follow up to the Special Session, taken by Member States on 26 May 2015 and available on the following site:
- http://apps.who.int/gb/ebwha/pdf_files/WHA68/A68_DIV3-en.pdf
- B. In accordance with the aforementioned decision, the CFE is a specific, replenishable funding mechanism established to provide the resources necessary to rapidly scale up WHO's initial response to outbreaks and emergencies with health consequences. The CFE is to be fully funded by voluntary contributions, flexible within the fund's scope. Operation of the CFE will emphasize predictability, timeliness, and country ownership; humanitarian principles of neutrality, humanity, impartiality, and independence; and practices of good humanitarian donorship.
- C. Further to decision WHA68(10), the CFE is under the authority of the Director-General, with disbursement at his or her discretion. When using the CFE, the Director-General will prioritize in-field operations in affected countries.

II. Financial arrangements

The total amount of the contribution is US$ 5000 and will be paid in one instalment.

The contribution shall be administered in accordance with the Financial Regulations and Rules, and financial and administrative rules and practices of WHO. Furthermore, it is understood that all contributions to WHO are subject exclusively to its internal and external auditing procedures.

The contribution should mention "Contingency Fund for Emergencies (CFE)" and can be deposited in the WHO's Geneva bank accounts as follows:
