

Georgia's Road Assets Management Enhancement

Organizers: The Roads Department of Georgia and The World Bank

Date: October 18, 2018

Venue: Biltmore Hotel, Tbilisi, Georgia

Co-chairs: Mr. Irakli Karseladze, First Deputy Minister of Regional Development and Infrastructure and Chairman of the Roads Department

And

Ms. Karla Gonzalez Carvajal, Transport Practice Manager, The World Bank

Mr. Ali Aymen, Transport Program Coordinator for South Caucasus and Sr. Transport Specialist, the World Bank

Audience:

(a) Government: Roads Department, Ministry of Regional Development and Infrastructure, National Environmental Agency, Ministry of Economy and Sustainable Development, Ministry of Education and Science, Ministry of Labor and Science

(b) Development Partners: WB, UN Women, EIB, ADB, EBRD, MCC

9 :30- 10 :00	Registration/Coffee
10 :00- 10 :15	1. Opening Mr. Irakli Karseladze, RD Chairman/First Deputy Minister Karla Gonzalez Carvajal, Transport Practice Manager, The World Bank Mr. Aymen Ali, Transport Program Coordinator for South Caucasus, The World Bank
10 :15- 10 :35	2. Strategic Views on Georgia's Road Asset Management (OPRC, Climate Risk, Road Safety, Gender Inclusiveness, Jobs, etc.) Mr. Irakli Karseladze, RD Chairman/First Deputy Minister
10 :35- 10 :55	3. World Bank Vision and Approach to Road Asset Management Mr. Aymen Ali, Transport Practice Manager for Europe, The World Bank
10 :55- 11 :15	4. Integration of Climate Risk Mangement in Georgia's Road Asset Management TBD, Roads Department
11 :15- 11 :55	5. Increasing Climate Resilience of Georgia's Road Assets Ms. Natalya Stankevich, Sr. Transport Specialist, The World Bank Mr. Robert Mutyaba, Transport Specialist, The World Bank
11 :55 12 :10	Coffee Break

12 :10- 12 :30	6. Women Inclusiveness in the Road Sector Ms. Mzia Giorgobiani, Deputy Minister of Regional Development and Infrastructure and Gender Focal Point with Local Governments Ms. Karla Gonzalez Carvajal, Transport Practice Manager, The World Bank
12 :30- 13 :10	7. Increasing Job Opportunities for Women in Georgia’s Road Sector Ms. Nato Kurshitashvili, Gender Specialist, The World Bank TBD, Gender Specialist, UN Women
13 :10 - 14 :10	Lunch
14 :10 – 14 :50	8. Increasing Sustainability of Georgia’s Road Assets through Output and Performance-Based Road Contracting (OPRC) Ms. Natalya Stankevich, Sr. Transport Specialist, the World Bank Mr. Irakli Kobidze, Deputy Head of Rehabilitation and Maintenance Projects Management Division, Roads Department
14 :50- 15 :10	9. OPRC Lessons Learnt in Other Countries of Europe and Central Asia Ms. Alexandra Spornol, Sr. Highways Engineer/Consultant, The World Bank
15 :10- 15 :25	Coffee Break
15 :25 - 16 :00	10. Policy Recommendations Climate Risk Management , Mr. Robert Mutyaba, Transport Specialist, The World Bank Gender Inclusiveness , Ms. Nato Kurshitashvili, Gender Specialist, The World Bank OPRC Mainstreaming , Ms. Natalya Stankevich, Sr. Transport Specialist, The World Bank
16 :00- 16 :20	11. Way Forward for Enhancing Georgia’s Road Asset Management Mr. Irakli Karseladze, RD Chairman/First Deputy Minister
16 :20- 16 :30	12. Closing Remarks Mr. Irakli Karseladze, RD Chairman/First Deputy Minister Karla Gonzalez Carvajal, Transport Practice Manager, The World Bank Mr. Aymen Ali, Transport Program Coordinator for South Caucasus, The World Bank