3. Connections from the airport to hotels

There are four main Barcelona airport transport options to the city centre. All of them are reliable, efficient and they all take more or less the same length of time.

Metro

The Airport Metro line, called L9 Sud, has stops at Terminal 1 and Terminal 2 (stops are called Aeroport T1 and Aeroport T2).

Airport Metro Ticket Price:

The cost for a single Airport metro ticket is €5.15. Note that you cannot use a standard single metro ticket to go to/from the airport.

One of the best ticket options once you get to the city is to buy a "T-casual" (11.35 €) which can be used for the metro, train (Renfe + ferrocarril), regular bus (excluding Aerobus) and Tram. It allows 10 travels, each valid for 1 hour and 15 minutes. The T-casual ticket can be used on more than one means of transport and all are counted as a single journey, provided that your journey is less than 1 hour and 15 minutes. This means for example, you can make changes at metro stops (provided you don't leave the metro), then leave the metro and jump on a bus to finish your journey or vice versa as long as the total length of the journey is less than 1 hour and 15 minutes. NOTE you cannot re-enter the metro once you have left it - this would count as another journey. You cannot use the T-casual ticket for the metro stops at Barcelona Airport. On the way back to the airport you will need to validate your ticket in order to exit. If you do not have a valid airport ticket you will need to buy one at the Airport.

The L9 Sud metro from Barcelona airport does not connect directly to the city centre.

If you are staying at the Amrey Sant Pau hotel, you get off at "Collblanc" station (12 or 13 stations after T2 and T1) and connect with the metro blue line (L5) with direction "Vall d'Hebron" and get off at "Sant Pau Dos de Maig" (9 stops). From there you will have to walk 10 minutes to reach the hotel.

If you are staying at the hotel Ayre Rossellón, you also need to change the metro line at the Collblanc station, take the blue line (L5) with direction Vall d'Hebron and get off at "Sagrada Familia" station (9 stops) and from there it is about 5 minutes walk to get to the hotel.

If you are staying at any of the three Catalonia hotels, you get off at "Torrassa" station (11 or 12 stations after T2 and T1) that connects with the metro Ounderground, red line (L1) with direction "Fondo" and get off in "Clot" station after 5 stops. Catalonia Sagrada Familia, Catalonia Albeniz and Catalonia Atenas hotels are within a short walking distance from the Clot metro station.

The metro line that links Barcelona airport to the city centre operates under the normal metro hours, as shown in the table below. The service normally runs every 7 minutes however this frequency can change depending on the demand.

Operating hours for Metro line to BCN Airport:

Day of the week	Lines 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 11
Monday-Thursday	05:00 - 00:00 midnight
Friday & bank holidays	05:00 - 02:00
Saturday and day prior to 01 January, 24 June, 15 August and 24 September	Continuous Service
Sunday	05:00 - 00:00 midnight

Train (Renfe)

The train station is situated in terminal 2 of the Barcelona airport (5 minutes walk from the main entrances). As most flights arrive at terminal 1, a shuttle service is in place which takes you from terminal 1 to terminal 2.

The RENFE train service runs approximately every 30 minutes to and from Barcelona airport, term. 2, to the city centre. Travel time is approximately 25 minutes.

The best option is to buy a single ticket from the airport to Barcelona Sants $(4.60 \ \epsilon)$ and then to buy a T-casual ticket $(11.35 \ \epsilon)$ once you arrive there, which you will be able to use to get around the city (see previous section "Metro" for more info on T-casual).

When travelling from the airport to the city centre you get off at Barcelona Sants.

From Barcelona Sants you will have to change for the Barcelona metro o system.

If you are staying at the Amrey Sant Pau hotel, you take the blue line (L5) with direction "Vall d'Hebron" and get off at "Sant Pau Dos de Maig" (3 stops). From there you will have to walk 10 minutes to reach the hotel.

From Barcelona Sants you take the blue line (L5) with direction Vall d'Hebron and get off at "Sagrada Familia" station (5 stops), if you are staying at the hotel Ayre Rossellón and from there it is about 5 minutes walk.

If you are staying at any of the three Catalonia hotels, you can go directly from the Airport station to the station called "Clot". Catalonia Sagrada Familia, Catalonia Albeniz and Catalonia Atenas hotels are within a short walking distance from the Clot RENFE station.
