

Second expert meeting on using a gender analysis of STEPS data to strengthen noncommunicable disease response: Gender and noncommunicable diseases country profiles
Tbilisi, Georgia
28-29 January 2020

Original: English

Experts meeting on using a gender analysis of the STEPS data for strengthening NCD prevention and control: Gender and NCDs country profiles

Preliminary program

Day 1 – NCDs and gender analysis

Time	Session
9:30-10:45	Welcome and introduction of participants and program <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Gender and NCDs
10:45-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-12:30	STEPS and Gender profiles: commonalities and selected highlights
12:30-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-15:45	Using a gender matrix to examine differences between men and women
15:45-16:00	Break
16:00-17:15	Methods and examples of strengthening a gender analysis
17:15-17:30	Overview of Day 2
	Evening social activity

Day 2 – Gender responsive interventions

Time	Session
9:30-9:45	Review of Day 1 and Introduction of Day 2
9:45-11:00	Gender approaches to interventions – international examples
11:00-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-12:30	Linking NCD response to management
12:30-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-14:30	Gender Responsive Programming
14:30-15:15	Next steps
15:15-15:30	Closing remarks