ASSIGNMENT OVERVIEW

Assignment Title: 1262314 - Enhancing policies and procedures for emergency care at private hospital in Georgia

Assignment Countries:
 - Georgia

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTION

Background

A private healthcare service provider in Georgia, that operates for over a decade, was recently mandated to provide emergency care to neurological and cardiological patients under Obligatory insurance program. Emergency department was initially included into the infrastructure of the facility, but up to the moment was not utilized, as scope of services included mostly routine pre-scheduled medical and surgical treatment.

As a result the facility faces additional flow of emergency patients and requires advice from a multidisciplinary team of experienced healthcare quality consultant with hands-on expertise in hospital emergency service provision. Experience of working in low/middle income countries would be an advantage; ability to work in Russian or Georgian languages is a strong plus.

Deliverables:
