

Dear Tea!

We are an international and national transporting company from 1989. Now we have 45 pieces of trucks and we would like to employ truck drivers (with E category drivin

The work will be in Hungary all week. At the weekends they can relax in a hotel what we will pay for them. We need 10 people who can drive trucks. We need people only euro per working day. They will transport sand or gravel for the road construction.

If they want to work abroad (Italy, Germany, Poland, Slovakia, Austria) they can get 65 euro per day! We transport grain, steel, paper and normal goods in paletts.

What do you think about our request? What we can we do to talk with them and employ them? Can you help me with it?
